Reflection on the Eucharist (part 3)

Not by chance is the Last Supper a meal : the Passover meal, but much more - transformed and divinised into the Banquet of the Lamb! Isaiah's vision is of the banquet that the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples...In Psalm 23, the Lord prepares for me a banquet in the sight of my foes - to shame them, to show His generosity, and His triumph over darkness and sin. And then .. The meal of the Upper Room : a foretaste of the fullness of the Blessed Vision of Heaven : "Blessed are those called to the Supper of the Lamb ..." The Lord of the harvest, the King, calls us to this meal. Are we listening for His voice? Do we respond with our whole lives? This is our truest vocation : to listen to the voice of the Lord, a voice that speaks to His people of peace. In the Blessed Eucharist, we are both returning to the table of the Last Supper of the Lord, and we are straining ahead to heaven - the Lord's own house where I wish to dwell for ever and ever. Holy Communion, then is the bridge between the past and the future, but is always NOW, always true in this eternal Communion : having heard His voice, we must offer our free and full "Yes!".

The Repository will re-open next weekend after all Masses and on Saturday between 9.30 & 10am. More volunteers to help at some of the Masses are still needed. Please phone Anne Pearton on 083-660-5608
