Reflection: In these last two weeks of the Church's year, the readings become more urgent. We are called to be ready, to prepare for the last days — our own last days, and the end of time. This does not fill us with dread, but it is sobering news. We wish to be like the wise bridesmaids, not the foolish ones. We want to be READY when the Lord of the harvest returns to call us! Let us not be found sleeping. Let our eyes be fixed on salvation, on the Lord who has come and will come again in glory
