Purity and the Christian Life ...

Now that the feasts of Christmastide are over, during which we considered mainly the mysteries of Our Lord's hidden life, we can let the liturgy help us contemplate the years of Christ's public life. From the very beginning of His mission, we see Christ seeking His disciples and calling them to His service.

The Gospel speaks of that apparently chance meeting of Our Lord with the first three disciples – Peter, James and John, who were later to become the foundation of His Church.

Following Christ, now as well as then, means giving Him our heart, our whole being, our life itself. We can well understand that to follow Christ we need to live holy purity – that is why we should endeavour to use our body for the glory of God, and purify our hearts. St Paul tells us : 'Your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you since you received Him from God – use your body for the glory of God'.

We need to talk to Our Lord in prayer and in the Blessed Eucharist. There we always find the help we need, the strength that turns our frailty into firmness, the love that fills our heart, created as it was for eternity.

We turn to Mary, Mother of Fair Love, because she creates within the soul of a Christian the refinement and filial tenderness. She will grant us the strong virtue of purity if we turn lovingly and trustingly to her.
