The Lord's Day .....

The Jewish Sabbath gave way to the Christian Sunday from the very beginning of the Church, and from then on, every Sunday we celebrate the Lord's Resurrection, the day He had won victory over sin and death for us. The precept of sanctifying the 'day of the Lord' or Sunday regulates one of man's essential duties with regard to His Creator and Redeemer. We render cult to God on this day dedicated to Him specially, through participation in the sacrifice of the Mass. There is no other celebration which could fill the meaning of this precept.

The centre and origin of the joyfulness of Christian feasts is to be found in the presence of Our Lord in His Church. He is the pledge and anticipation of definitive union in the celebration which will have no end. From it there springs the joy that characterizes our Sunday celebration. That is why this day is not merely a remembrance of past events, an historical anniversary : rather it is a sign which shows Christ and makes Him present amongst us.

The Mass makes Jesus present in His Church : it is a sacrifice of infinite value offered to God the Father in the Holy Spirit. All other human, cultural and social values of holy days have to take second place to this : they cannot be allowed at any moment to obscure or substitute for what is fundamental.

We must try through example and apostolate to make Sunday into the Lord's day, a day of adoration and glorification of God, of the Holy Sacrifice, of prayer, of rest, of recollection, of cheerful meeting in the family.

'Let the earth cry out to God with joy: praise the glory of His name: proclaim His glorious praise.
