The Mustard Seed:

God uses what is little to work in the world and in souls. Our Lord chose a few men to begin the work of evangelization. For the most part they were humble fishermen, unlettered men, with evident defects and few material resources. Looking at things from a purely human point of view, it is impossible to explain how these men could have spread the teaching of Christ to the whole world, with so many obstacles and so much opposition to overcome. We too are like that grain of mustard seed in the task given us by God in the middle of the world. Difficulties will come and we will be more aware of our own nothingness. This should bring us to have more trust in the Master and in the supernatural character of the task we are trying to accomplish. If we don't lose sight of our littleness and the power of grace, we will always be strong and faithful in what God asks of us. If we do not keep our eyes fixed on Jesus we will become discouraged and pessimistic and will soon abandon the task. With God we can do all things. From the Cross of Christ comes the power and courage we need.

Let us look to Mary – She did not draw back when the crowd cried out, nor did she leave Our Redeemer alone when each person was in his cowardice emboldened to ill-treat Christ. Let us call on her with all our strength 'Virgin most faithful!', and ask her that those of us who call ourselves God's friends may be truly so at all times.
