We receive the same Christ in every Communion – His presence in the soul.

When we receive Communion, we receive Christ Himself with His Body, His Blood, His Soul and His Divinity. He gives Himself to us in an intimate union which binds us to Him in a real way. Our life is transformed into His life. In Holy Communion Christ is not only God with us, but God in us.

After we receive Communion, Christ is truly, really, substantially present in our soul. We can apply here those words of the Lord to St Augustine: I am the food of grown men. Grow, and you shall feed upon me. You will not change me into yourself, as you change food into your flesh, but you will be changed into me. Christ gives us His life! He divinizes us! He transforms us into Himself! The infinite merits of the Passion are poured out into our soul He sends us strength and consolation. He leads us to His Most Sacred Heart, to transform our sentiments into His sentiments. The Eucharist holds all the graces and fruits of eternal life for humanity and for each individual soul. If we frequently consider the effects this Sacrament can have on the soul, we will come to treasure Holy Communion and spiritual communions. We will see the value of receiving our Lord as often as we can. We will prepare ourselves well for each Communion. Each and every day we will say to Jesus : Lord, give us this bread always. The soul becomes the temple and tabernacle of the Holy Trinity. The life of the three Divine Persons will transform it, nurturing in it the divine seed that was implanted in Baptism. It will also be raised to a supernatural place. Christ's virtues will vivify it. Then we will be able to say with confidence:

It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me
