Rest and Recreation .....

Our life is one of service to Christ, to our family and to society; it is a life of work and of dedication to souls.
And so we should'nt be surprised if we sometimes feel tired and need a rest. Offering this situation to God can be extremely meritorious, even though we may feel totally dry and with no appetite for devotional practices.

Come away ... and rest awhile says Our Lord. Far from being an excuse to get wrapped up in ourselves, relaxation is an occasion to seek Christ, because there are no holidays in Love.

When Jesus headed off in the boat with His disciples to get away from everything, today's Gospel tells us that many saw where they were heading for, and went there on foot and got their ahead of them. When Jesus landed He saw a great throng and He had compassion on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and He began to teach them many things.

Our Lord's example teaches us that the needs of others come before our own. On many occasions we too have to forgo our rest, postponing it till later because of people who are needing care and attention from us.

Let us do it as readily as Our Lord looked after the multitude, putting aside His own plans.

It is a good example of detachment for us to apply to our own situation.
