Communion restores and renews our strength, so that we may reach heaven.. What we cannot do of our own strength, we can do with the meal that the Lord gives when we are most distraught. Throughout our life, deeds should express our gratitude to our Lord for many things, but especially for having given us Holy Communion. Our gratitude will be shown in preparing to receive Him better each day, and in receiving Him fully aware that He gives us all the strength we need to travel resolutely down the road of sanctity. The Holy Eucharist is the greatest Sacrament, the centre and summit of all the rest. The true presence of Christ gives this sacrament an infinite supernatural effectiveness. There is no greater joy in this life than to receive our Lord. When we wish to give ourselves to others we often encounter some limitation to our self-giving. In Holy Communion, divine power surpasses all human limitations – Love achieves her ideal. When two pieces of wax are put into the fire, they melt and become as a single thing. Something similar occurs when we participate in the Body of Christ and in His Precious Blood. The person receiving Communion receives a sure sign of eternal life. Jesus has what we lack and need. Let us ask Our Lady to show us how to receive Him with the purity, humility and devotion with which she received Him, with the spirit and fervour of the saints. The Visit to the Blessed Sacrament is also a very beneficial practice. There is no better place than before the Tabernacle for those intimate, personal conversations that are required for permanent union with Christ.
