Our life is intimately related to the life of Christ ....

There are many questions in this life which we can safely ignore without consequence. There are other questions which have a more important relation to ourselves and to our society.

One thinks of the dignity of the human person, the ultimate impermanence of temporal goods, the fleeting nature of our life on earth ... There is still a more momentous question which touches upon the meaning of our existence. It is the question which Christ posed to the Apostles – But who do you say that I am? There is only one valid answer : You are the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. He is the person who is of the greatest importance to my destiny, my happiness, my successes and failures in this life and hereafter. Our happiness is not in our health, our worldly success, in our ability to get what we want.

Our life will have been worth something if and when we fall in love with Christ. All our problems can be resolved if we are close to Him. Let us tell Jesus that we want to follow Him. He will help us to carry our cross with refinement.

Lord, take me as I am, with my defects, with my shortcomings, but make me become as You want me to be just as you did with St Peter!
