Work for Everyone :

If we are fulltime Christians, then we will have to take our faith into the workplace.

The Lord wants there to be apostles in the factory, the office, the university and in the home.

The absolutely essential thing is that Christ be known and loved.

The Good News has to reach every corner of the earth. For this work the Lord counts on everyone to contribute: men and women, priests and laity, young and old, married people, members of religious orders, associations inspired to do the work of the Holy Spirit. No Christian is exempt. Every Christian is called to extend the Kingdom of Christ.

We have to keep in mind that many people depend on our word and example if they are to receive the grace to follow Christ more closely. We can never stop doing apostolate with the people whom God has placed by our side.

The means used may differ, but the end is always the same.]

There are many, many different ways for people to be drawn to the Lord. Let us maintain, therefore, our fervour of spirit. We must teach others that our actions are inspired by the charity of Christ. The Lord made this very clear when He said: By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.
