We love because God first loved us....

The basic foundation for St Alphonsus was the unlimited, infinite love of God, God is love. Hence our fundamental starting point should be love. Perfection consists of loving God with our whole heart. We love because God first loved us. Love is our strength and courage – our everything. Let us make room for love in our hearts to be able to experience healing and freedom from everything that hurts us, humiliates us and crushes us.

Let us immerse ourselves in prayer, which draws us close to the source of life. It is the “weakness” of God. He listens and responds to us when we pray because we are His children and will always gaze at us as a father looks upon his children. Jesus told us to become like children in order to enter into the Kingdom of heaven. Life will be beauty, fortitude, forgiveness, mercy, an embrace and a smile.

We need to stay with Jesus. When we are close to Him we don’t get lost doing many things for our own glory and for our own success. If we live for Him, even if we don’t do everything perfectly, it’s okay! Let us pray to the Blessed Mother, remembering her heart beats with love, for the whole world. Let’s entrust ourselves to Mary, with hearts of little ones.
