The Virtue of Charity

As you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.

With the help of grace, a Christian discovers God in his neighbour: he knows that we are all children of the same Father and brothers of Jesus Christ.

Our Lord gave a new and incomparably deeper meaning to love for our neighbour. He established it as the New Commandment and as the sign by which Christians will be known.

If I have not love, I am nothing.

Many doctors and scribes knew more about God than the majority of those who accompanied Jesus, but all their knowledge was fruitless. They did not understand what was most important – the presence of the Messiah in their midst, and His message of understanding, of respect and of love.

Charity means living in peace with our neighbour, venerating the image of God that is found in each and every man, and doing all we can to get others in their turn to learn how to follow Christ.

We are urged constantly to show our love by performing works of service, by prayer and also by penance.

When we grow in charity, all our virtues are enriched and strengthened. If we have frequent recourse to Our Lady, she will teach us how to love and how to treat other people, for she is the Teacher of Charity
