Remembering and Thanking :

When our paths in life become stony, and dark clouds gather above us, suffocating all inspiration, it is time for us to become quiet and consider the past. All the experiences and blessings we have had in all the years that have passed.

There were times when we wanted to break under a burden – and Someone suddenly gave us new strength, clarity and courage so that we could carry on. When disaster threatened us and it felt as though everything was lost, Someone made us get up out of the doldrums and gave us a new life of victory.

Every problem offers a new opportunity- every instance of sadness leads to consolation and joy. While we are contemplating the deeper meaning of life, we realize anew that every negative influence had its positive reverse. Then our hearts fill with joy and we rejoice – Praise the Lord. Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good, His love is everlasting.

The key that unlocks the door that leads to a creative life is thankfulness. There is always something in life for which we can thank God. Thank Him for the good people that He has sent into your life, for the wonderful opportunities He has given you, for the friends with whom He has enriched our lives, and above all for the awareness of His holy presence under all circumstances.

Holy God, my heavenly Father, aware of all your blessings in the past, and that you are with me in Christ and the Holy Spirit, I go to meet the future with confidence.
