Jesus Christ, the King
Jesus Christ is king over all beings, since all things were made through Him, and in a special way over all men.
The Angel had already told this to Mary : you will bear a son and the Lord God will give to Him the throne of His father David, and of His kingdom there will be no end.
Jesus had told Pilate that His kingdom was not of this world. He tells us that His kingdom is one of peace, justice and love.
God the Father has delivered us from the dominion of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son, in whom we have redemption.
The reign of sin, wherever sin dwells, is a reign of darkness, sadness, loneliness, deception and lies. Christ is the only Saviour, the one who gives meaning to human events and to our lives.
Contemplating the King crowned with thorns we should tell Him that we want Christ to reign in our lives, in our hearts, in our works, in our thoughts, in our words, in all that we are.
We now tell Jesus once again that He is the King of my heart. He is the King of that intimate interior world of mine where no one can enter and where I alone am master. Here in my heart Jesus is King. This you well know, O Lord.
